WELCOME OFFERS

WELCOME OFFERS

With our Welcome Offers, we invite people with refugee status to visit the Kunsthalle in groups. These offers are free of charge, open to people of all ages and, on request, can be accompanied by interpreters. Please register your group in advance

WELCOME TOURS

A free offer for refugees of all ages and their accompanying persons

We invite you to our free Welcome Tours through the Hamburger Kunsthalle. The guided tours are for groups with refugees of all ages.

An expert will guide you through the museum's exhibitions and provide information on important works of art from eight centuries. You will hear interesting stories and learn a lot about different artists and their works of art.

During the tour, we all share our thoughts on art. You are welcome to ask questions. With some artworks, you can try out something new yourself. We offer activities for different age groups.

Groups of eight or more can book a Welcome Tour. These tours are offered in German and English. An interpreter can also translate for you into the following languages: Ukrainian, Russian, Farsi and Arabic.

Please inform us which language you require when registering. If this is possible, we will arrange for the desired language.

Meeting point: main entrance of the Hamburger Kunsthalle

Participation fee: free of charge

Duration: 60 minutes

REGISTRATION

Please register your group at least two weeks before your visit.

When writing your e-mail, please include the following details:

- Subject line: Welcome Tour
- Number of participants. Between 8 and 25 people can take part.
